Call for Communications

110874_F

For fast publication of your communications look no further than Analyst... the leading analytical science journal for communications.

'I am extremely pleased with the effective, professional and rapid handling of our Communication.

This is exactly why I picked Analyst for submission!

Professor Joseph Wang,
Arizona State University, USA

Analyst communications report on preliminary research findings that are highly original in nature, of immediate interest and are likely to have a high impact in their field. The key aim is to present research on innovative chemical concepts with important analytical implications.

Benefits of publishing a Communication in Analyst include:

- High impact
- Short times to publication (typically 60 days from receipt)
- High profile (within the journal and widely promoted)

First in its class

"I attribute this success to the quality of the authors that the editor and editorial board have been able to recruit..."

Professor Jonathan Sessler,
The University of Texas, USA

Chemical Society Reviews (Chem Soc Rev) publishes the largest number of chemical review articles, making it first in its class for chemical scientists*. With an impact factor of 20.086* and the leading immediacy index for a chemical reviews journal at 5.314, this impressive result underlines the continuing success of the journal.

Chem Soc Rev supplies high quality and highly cited articles, covering topical areas of interest across the chemical sciences. Published monthly, it includes themed issues reviewing new research areas, and edited by a specialist guest editor.

Take the global perspective

Chemistry World, the award-winning monthly magazine from the Royal Society of Chemistry, has something for everyone with daily online news, articles on all aspects of the chemical sciences, job vacancies and award-winning columnists.

Named Best monthly and business professional magazine of the year at the 2006 PPA Magazine Awards, Chemistry World reflects the ubiquitous importance of the chemical sciences in the world today, providing a more complete picture and informed opinion on the issues that matter.

Daily web updates and e-mail alerts give the magazine a strong online presence that enhances and expands on the monthly print issue. Plus, with the Chemistry World Podcast and Blog, there's a chance to go interactive.
